What is the LDS/BSA training?

- BSA training specifically for packs and troops with patrols for 11 year-olds, chartered by the LDS church.
- This training is from the most recent syllabus published by the BSA and incorporates the policies of the LDS church.
- All adults associated with Scouting for boys ages 8 to 11, whether they have been previously trained or not, will benefit from this integrated BSA/LDS training.
- Every LDS pack and troop should encourage their leaders to attend.

Training offered:

- Cub Scout Leader Specific
 - Cubmaster
 - Pack Committee
 - Wolf and Bear Leader
 - Webelos Leader
- Leaders of 11 year-old Boy Scouts – 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

The new resources for den and pack meetings will be introduced with specific directions on how to use them in LDS sponsored packs
