Ways To Involve Parents in Their Venturing Crew/Sea Scout Ship

Description of Tasks to be Accomplished
Host an activity or a pool party for the crew/ship.
Go on a trip with the crew/ship as an adult chaperone.
Be a consultant on a career or hobby by teaching the skills of your trade.
Be one of the key adult leaders involved with the crew.
Offer your property, business, etc. for activities.
Assist with unit fund-raising projects.
Support your Venturer or Sea Scout about their program and provide guidance and participation with them on meetings and events.
Encourage other youth to invite their friends to join the program. Help with sign-ups.
Attend and help provide support to annual or regular parent involvement night events.
Offer your talents and other organization resources in support of the program.
Be one of the key adult leaders involved with the ship.
Help collect a Program Capability Inventory or Talent Survey from all families and other community resources in support of the program.
Encourage and support youth in leadership and mentoring.
Assist with transportation on activities or meetings.

* Note: This is not a total list of available tasks a parent or other adult can assist with, but provides guidance in reviewing the unit's needs.
